

HOMELESSNESS

- SOLUTIONS FROM LIVED EXPERIENCES
THROUGH ARTS-INFORMED RESEARCH

EXHIBIT AND REPORT LAUNCH
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 9:30AM-1PM
LIGHT LUNCH WILL BE SERVED

Metro Hall (Rotunda)
55 John Street, Toronto
TTC: St. Andrew Subway Station

Wheelchair Accessible entrance and washroom

Exhibit open
Tuesday Sept. 30 -
Friday Oct. 3, 2008

This event is free

If a picture is worth a thousand words, how many pictures does it take to understand just one word:

HOMELESSNESS?

The Collaborative Exhibit will include the following projects:

I WAS HERE

*Homelessness: Diverse Experiences, Common Issues, Shared Solutions
The Need for Inclusion and Accountability*

The Street Health Report 2007 & Street Health Stories

Count Us In! Inclusion and Homeless Women in Downtown East Toronto

a day in the life: Stories and Photographs of Health and Homelessness in Toronto

Struggles, Strengths and Solutions: Exploring Food Security with Young Aboriginal Moms

asleep in Toronto

Coming Together: Homeless Women, Housing and Social Support

*This is a collaborative exhibit of eight participatory, arts-informed, community-based research projects with people at risk of or with experiences of homelessness. A report synthesizing shared findings and recommendations will be released at the Launch. The exhibit is organized by the medicine wheel teachings according to the Anishnawbe, whose territory we live on.

Supporting Organizations:

University of Toronto, Factor-Inwentash
Faculty of Social Work
Ryerson University School of Social Work
The Wellesley Institute

York University Critical Disability Studies
Regent Park Community Health Centre
Street Health
Ontario Women's Health Network

St. Michael's Hospital
National Film Board of Canada,
Filmmaker-in-Residence Programme

For more information, contact
Dr. Izumi Sakamoto (Factor-Inwentash
Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto) at 416-946-8224 or artsandhomeless@gmail.com

Project Funders:
Social Sciences and Humanities Research
Council of Canada
The Wellesley Institute
Centre for Urban Health Initiatives